

Compton Embezzler Will Go To Prison

Tomorrow night, R. B. Hedrick, deposed city treasurer of Compton, who late last week pleaded guilty to embezzling $6100 of Compton city funds and was sentenced to San Quentin for from one to ten years, will be taken to prison with the weekly commitment of newly-sentenced men. Hedrick admitted his peculations before the city council of Compton about a month ago. He said he had used the money in real estate speculation. Although he said he would try to return the money from his own funds, he made little or no defense and his case was one of the shortest on record of embezzling city officers.

"Hunting Four" To Sing Here, Nov. 24

"The Hunting Four," a well known male quartet of Los Angeles, will give a concert at the First Christian church, next Tuesday evening, November 24, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The personnel of the quartet is as follows: George A. Nickman, first tenor; Ernest P. Bill, second tenor; Ervin L. Weber, baritone; Charles N. Frager, basso, well known in business circles.

The quartet will specialize in negro spirituals, "The Old Rugged Cross" and other great gospel songs so dear to the public, and will feature "The Outlaw," a song defending the 18th amendment. The quartet was made famous by singing "Git On 'Bo' De Gospel Train." The concert is being sponsored by the young people of the church. No admission charge will be made, but an offering will be taken. A cordial invitation is extended to all to hear them.

LAND REVERTS TO ACREAGE
With the approval of a map of Tract 10540 in the McDonald Tract Tuesday night by the city council, that area reverted back to the acreage from whence it came. The tract has been mapped and recorded as residential property with streets and alleys laid out on paper. But the tract was never sold as a subdivision—hence its reversion to farm property.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Richhart, Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Clever and Mrs. M. Pier of Fullerton.
